

Gregg Feinstein

Mr. Feinstein is a Managing Director in Houlihan Lokey's New York office and Co-Head of the firm's M&A Group. He is also the firm's Co-Chair of the M&A Commitment Committee and a member of the firm's Corporate Finance Board of Directors. He has nearly three decades of M&A experience, largely focused on advising publicly traded companies on a variety of matters.

Before joining Houlihan Lokey, Mr. Feinstein ran the M&A Group at Jefferies & Company, where he led that firm's efforts in both public and private transactions across many industries. Before that, he was a founder of Berenson Minella & Company, an M&A boutique, where he spent 12 years and was its chief operating officer. Earlier in his career, he worked in the M&A department at both Merrill Lynch and Lehman Brothers Kuhn Loeb.

During Mr. Feinstein's career, his notable M&A transactions include the hostile takeover defense of Stelmar Corporation, the recapitalization of Trump Hotels & Casino Resorts, the privatizations of Big Flower Holdings and Workflow Management and the recapitalization of Samsonite Corporation, which was M&A Advisor's 2003 Middle Market M&A Deal of the Year.

Mr. Feinstein graduated summa cum laude with a B.S.E. in economics from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.
